When Do We Meet

The club holds practical sessions on the first and third Friday of each month from February to December at our club room in the Walter Reid Building, at 7:00pm for a 7:30pm start to proceedings

The first Friday of the month is competition night and includes:

Club competition for all levels.
An update of forthcoming events.
A lecture or display by a club member or invited guest.
Question time, light refreshments and a chat.

The third Friday of the month is for practical sessions:

Practical Sessions are held on a particular genre / type of photography each month with the aim of providing new skills to our newer members

Club Outings

The club also arranges monthly club outings and shoots, which provide a hands on approach to learning. You can shoot as you please, or take advantage of the wealth of knowledge and hints that the more experienced members are willing to offer.

COMPETITION

The club competition night caters for all levels and budgets with both printed and projected image categories

The following categories are run during the year:

- ✓ Novice projected Image
 - With both open and set subjects
- ✓ Open Creative Image, Projected
- ✓ Colour Prints
 - 200x250mm (8"x10")
 - 400x500mm (16"x20")
- ✓ Black and White Prints
 - 200x250mm (8"x10")
 - 400x500mm (16"x20")

Every second month is Set Subject month for the Novice projected Images. The subjects are chosen to encourage participants to expand their photography

The Club competition provides a forum to display your work as well as friendly rivalry that produces some very high quality work. The Club also encourages members to enter in State and National competitions, and in fact our members regularly win awards. The Rockhampton Photography Club has a reputation for producing high quality competitive work and is well respected throughout Australian photographic circles.

What do I do Now :
